Sir,

In submitting herewith a file of Kannarese correspondence ending with French Rocks Sub Division officer's yadi no 1310 dated 20th February last, I have the honor to state that Survey nos 22 and 14 in the Halleri Mallenahalli village of the Nagaraugala Taluk were originally Inam lands endowed to the Anjaneya Swami temple in the said village. During the Inam settlement in 1880, however these lands were resumed and fully assessed on the ground that the idol of Hanumantha Devaand no worship was conducted. (Vide Inam no 65 dated 2^d August 1901) -

The villagers have since repaired the temple, cause a new idol at a ^{total} cost of two or three hundred rupees, reappointed Pujari Venkaieyya to perform Puja daily. They now pray that the lands which were originally Inam may be restored to the temple as Inam, and the Amildar and the Sub Division officer support their prayer -

I beg to recommend therefore that the lands in question be restored to the temple as Idam - The present Khatedar, Pujari Venkaiya relinquishes all his interest in the lands

I have the honor to be
Sir

Yours most obedient servant
